

Dog Training Classes at Natural Pet Foods!

766 S. Clinton Ave., Rochester, NY

Thursdays - December 2, 2010 thru January 6, 2011

Canine Good Citizen, 6:30pm - 7:30pm - You and your dog will prepare for the AKC's Canine Good Citizen (CGC) test which will be held on Jan. 6th. Earning the CGC certificate demonstrates that your dog is under your control and well-mannered around strangers, other dogs and while moving about the community. Many rental agencies and insurance companies require dogs to have a CGC certificate as a routine matter in their business dealings with dog owners. As a prerequisite dogs should have completed a basic training program prior to enrollment.

- Proof that the dog is current on vaccinations for distemper, parvo and rabies is required at the time of registration.

Fee - $100.00 includes all materials and the cost of the test, non-refundable after 11/22/10.

Puppy Pre-K, 7:45pm - 8:15pm - For puppies 8-16 weeks old. You and your puppy will have lots of fun while learning the basics of life together, how puppies learn, some basic commands and walking politely on leash and, every class will end with puppy play time!

- Proof at least one distemper, parvo vaccination is required at the start of classes.

Fee - $50.00, non-refundable after 11/22/10.

About the Instructor: Diane J. Gardner is a Certified Professional Dog Trainer (CPDT), a member of the Association of Pet Dog Trainers and the owner of Premier Dog Training. She has trained dogs since 1992 and has been teaching dog obedience classes since 2002. She also works privately (one on one) with dogs that present serious behavior problems. Diane constantly pursues professional development and continuing education so she can learn and share the most up-to-date information on how dogs learn and how best to teach them. She believes strongly in using only those methods that are humane and dog-friendly. Her goal is to improve the human-canine bond.

If you are deaf or hard of hearing, Diane can sign!

Please bring your dog to class on a plain buckle collar and 6' leash, if you use another collar, harness or training device, please bring it with you. Dress comfortably for class and wear sneakers or rubber soled shoes. Observers are welcome.
